

LEGEND SIGNOS CONVENCIONALES. On this map a line is considered as being a minimum of 2.5 meters in width. On this map a line is considered as being a minimum of 2.5 meters in width. Includes symbols for roads, railways, water features, and other geographical markers.

GLOSSARY GLOSARIO

Table listing geographical features and their corresponding symbols in Spanish and English, such as 'Arroyo' (intermittent stream) and 'Barrío' (section of town).

MAP INFORMATION AS OF 1971. INFORMACION DE MAP A CORRIENTE AL 1971. Prepared and published by the Defense Mapping Agency Hydrographic/Topographic Center, Washington, D. C.

CONTOUR INTERVAL 20 METERS. INTERVALO DE CURVAS DE NIVEL DE 20 METROS

Grid information table with columns for 100 METER REFERENCE and REFERENCIA DE 100 METROS. Includes instructions on how to use the grid for reporting coordinates.

Projection and datum information table. Lists Spheroid, Esferoide, and Grid convergence details for the map's datum.

Grid convergence and map orientation information. Includes diagrams for grid convergence, a north arrow, and a map of the region showing the location of Nagarote within the Department of Managua.