

Prepared and published by the Defense Mapping Agency Hydrographic/Topographic Center, Washington, D.C.

LEGEND

On this map a line is generally considered as being 8-12 feet (2.5-3.6 meters) in width. EN ESTE MAPA UNA LÍNEA TIENE GENERALMENTE UNA ANCHURA DE 8-12 PIES (2.5-3.6 METROS).

Table with 2 columns: ROADS and CAMINOS. It lists various road types and their symbols, such as 'Dual highway' and 'Autopista', and 'All weather, hard surface' and 'carretera'.

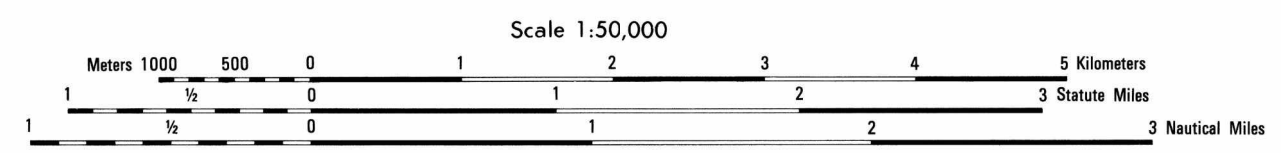

SIGNOS CONVENCIONALES

REDACCIÓN CARTOGRAFÍA EN 1983 DESDE LAS MEJORES FUENTES DE INFORMACIÓN

Table with 2 columns: Power transmission line and Línea de transmisión. It lists various symbols for power lines, fences, schools, and other infrastructure.

GLOSSARY - GLOSARIO

Table with 2 columns: Glossary terms and their definitions. It includes terms like 'Área de minas', 'Barrio', 'Caída de agua', and 'Campo de aterrizaje'.

CONTOUR INTERVAL 20 METERS SUPPLEMENTARY CONTOURS 10 METERS. CURVAS DE NIVEL A INTERVALO DE 20 METROS CURVAS DE NIVEL SUPLEMENTARIAS A INTERVALO DE 10 METROS. Includes information on projection and datum.

100 METER REFERENCE. Includes diagrams and instructions for reporting coordinates across a 100,000 meter square area.

ELEVATION GUIDE GUÍA DE ELECCIÓN. Includes a color-coded elevation scale and a table for adjoining sheets (HOJAS ADYACENTES).

BOUNDARIES LÍMITES. Includes a map of the region and information about limited distribution and contact details.