

GLOSSARIO GLOSSARY. A table listing symbols used on the map and their corresponding names in Spanish and English. Symbols include terrain features like hills, depressions, and roads, as well as administrative markers like borders and military posts.

COMPILATION DIAGRAM DIAGRAMA DE COMPILACION

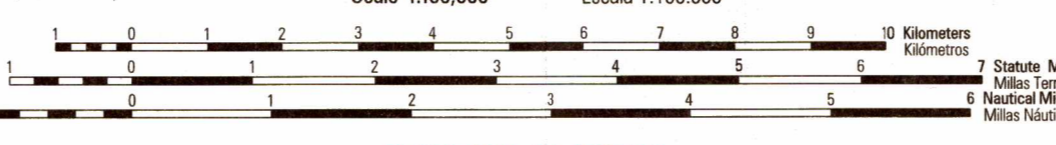

BOUNDARIES LIMITES and ADJOINING SHEETS HOJAS ADYACENTES. A table listing the sheet numbers of adjacent sheets in a grid format. It also includes a small diagram of the sheet boundaries.

Prepared and published by the National Imagery and Mapping Agency. Preparados y publicados por el National Imagery and Mapping Agency.

LEGEND LEYENDA. A detailed table of symbols and their meanings for various map features. It includes categories for populated places, roads, railroads, boundaries, and relief. Symbols are shown next to their descriptions in both Spanish and English.

NOTES. A section containing important information for map users, including details about the datum, scale, and how to interpret contour lines and elevation data.

ELEVATIONS IN METERS ELEVACIONES EN METROS. A section explaining how to read and interpret elevation data from the map, including contour intervals and spot elevations.

CONTOUR INTERVAL 10 METERS EQUIDISTANCIA DE LAS CURVAS DE NIVEL 10 METROS. A section explaining the meaning of the contour lines and the 10-meter interval used on the map.

COORDINATE CONVERSION WGS 84 TO CHINA ASTRO and CONVERSION DE COORDENADAS DEL SISTEMA GEODESICO MUNDIAL (WGS 84) AL SISTEMA DE DATUM CHINA ASTRO. A table providing the formulas and constants needed to convert between the two coordinate systems.

LIMITED DISTRIBUTION DISTRIBUCION LIMITADA. A section containing distribution information, including contact details for the National Imagery and Mapping Agency and instructions on how to obtain the map.

