

Aleutian Clouds

These cloud formations were seen over the western Aleutian Islands. Their color variations are probably due to differences in temperature and in the size of water droplets that make up the clouds.

Landsat 7 data acquired 6/16/2000

1" = 2.3 miles (3.7 km)

