Federal Law 18 U.S.C. 1001 makes it a crime in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States for any person knowingly and willfully to falsify, conceal, or cover up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact; to make any materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation; or to make or use any false writing or document knowing that it contains a materially false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry. Violations of 18 U.S.C. 1001 are punishable by fines of up to $10,000, imprisonment of up to five years, or both.

NOTICES

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

General: The Federal Lands Recreation Enhancement Act of 2004 (REA), 16 U.S.C. 6804 et seq.

Authority: The information collected is required to establish eligibility; process financial transactions to complete Pass purchase requests; fulfill Passes to individuals (“fulfill” and “fulfillment” refer to shipping and handling of Passes), federal recreation sites, and third parties; and provide associated customer services such as sending renewal notices and providing information about the Pass program and federal lands. Informational or promotional messages will be sent to individuals and organizations only if they have affirmatively requested such messages through an “opt-in” mechanism.

Purposes and Uses: In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C.552a(b) of the Privacy Act, records or information contained in this system may be disclosed outside the National Park Service as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) to other Federal, state, tribal, territorial, foreign or local government, educational, and other organizations, entities or individuals for the purpose of verifying eligibility to receive a Pass, prevent duplication, fraud and abuse, or as otherwise required by law when the disclosure is compatible with the purpose for which the records were compiled as described under the system of records notice “America the Beautiful—The National Parks and Federal Recreational Lands Pass System, DOI-06”

Effects of Nondisclosure: Voluntary, however, failure to provide the requested information may impede individual from obtaining a pass from the National Park Service.
